Appointment of Directors

Nancy Snyderman, M.D., FACS

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Axonics Modulation Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) has appointed Nancy Snyderman, M.D., FACS, to serve as a member of the Board and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board, effective as of April 8, 2019. Dr. Snyderman has no direct or indirect material interest in any transaction required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K, has no arrangement or understanding between her and any other person required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 401(a) of Regulation S-K and has no family relationships required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 401(d) of Regulation S-K.

Pursuant to the terms of the Company’s 2018 Omnibus Incentive Plan, Dr. Snyderman was granted an option to purchase 10,000 shares of the Company’s common stock and 5,000 restricted shares of the Company’s common stock. Subject to certain conditions, such option will have an exercise price equal to $21.04, the closing sale price of the Company’s common stock on the Nasdaq Global Market on April 8, 2019, and such option and restricted shares shall be fully vested as of April 8, 2020.

Dr. Snyderman, age 67, has served as an independent director on the board of directors of Alkermes plc and as a member of the nominating and corporate governance committee since 2016. Dr. Snyderman was an advisory board member to GE’s Healthymagination for twelve years and previously served as a vice president for corporate communications at Johnson & Johnson. Dr. Snyderman is a board-certified head and neck surgeon and has had academic appointments at the University of Pennsylvania and the University of California-San Francisco. She recently served as a professor at the Center for Innovation for Global Health at Stanford University. Dr. Snyderman is an Emmy award winning medical correspondent having worked at ABC News from 1987 to 2003 and later as chief medical editor at NBC News from 2004 to 2015. She has been widely published in peer-reviewed medical journals and has written for Good Housekeeping, AARP, Parenting, Health, and O magazines. Dr. Snyderman is an advocate for women’s health and a prolific public speaker and presently serves on the board of directors of Fair Food Network and the Albright Institute at Wellesley College. Dr. Snyderman holds a B.A. in microbiology from Indiana University and a M.D. from the University of Nebraska and has completed residencies in Pediatrics and Otolaryngology Head and Neck Surgery at the University of Pittsburgh.

Jane E. Kiernan

The Board has appointed Jane E. Kiernan to serve as a member of the Board and the Audit Committee of the Board, effective as of April 8, 2019. Ms. Kiernan has no direct or indirect material interest in any transaction required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K, has no arrangement or understanding between her and any other person required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 401(a) of Regulation S-K and has no family relationships required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 401(d) of Regulation S-K.

Pursuant to the terms of the Company’s 2018 Omnibus Incentive Plan, Ms. Kiernan was granted an option to purchase 10,000 shares of the Company’s common stock and 5,000 restricted shares of the Company’s common stock. Subject to certain conditions, such option will have an exercise price equal to $21.04, the closing sale price of the Company’s common stock on the Nasdaq Global Market on April 8, 2019, and such option and restricted shares shall be fully vested as of April 8, 2020.

Ms. Kiernan, age 58, has over 30 years of executive and management leadership in health care with both public and private companies. Ms. Kiernan is a co-founder of K2 Biotechnology Ventures, an organization engaged in developing and commercializing university and medical center innovations in partnership with venture capital, health care corporations and philanthropic health care foundation partners. From 2010 to 2017, Ms. Kiernan served as the chief executive officer of Salter Labs, a manufacturer of specialty medical devices. From 2006 to 2011, Ms.

Kiernan served on the board of directors and as chair of the audit committee of American Medical Systems Holdings Inc. prior to it being acquired by Endo Health Solutions Inc., formerly Endo Pharmaceuticals Holdings Inc., a subsidiary of Endo International plc. From 2001 to 2010, Ms. Kiernan held executive and general management positions with Baxter Healthcare Corporation. Prior to 2001, she held corporate and line management roles in finance, strategy, marketing, and operations with both Baxter Healthcare Corporation and Allegiance Healthcare Corporation. As a community leader, Ms. Kiernan serves on the board of directors of Ryan Banks Academy, an urban boarding school in Chicago, and has served as committee chair and on the board of directors of the American Red Cross of Greater Chicago. Axonics® Appoints Nancy L. Snyderman, M.D. and Jane E. Kiernan to its Board of Directors

Irvine, CA – April 8, 2019 – Axonics Modulation Technologies, Inc. (NASDAQ: AXNX) a medical technology company focused on the development and commercialization of novel implantable Sacral Neuromodulation (“SNM”) devices for the treatment of urinary and bowel dysfunction, today announced that Nancy L. Snyderman, M.D. and Jane E. Kiernan have been appointed to the Axonics board of directors, effective immediately.

Concurrent with this appointment, Shahzad Malik, M.D., general partner with Advent Life Sciences (London), and Geoff Pardo, partner with Gilde Healthcare (Boston), members of the board of directors since 2015 and 2017, respectively, have retired from the Axonics board and will not stand for re-election at the Axonics annual shareholder meeting planned for August 19, 2019.

Raphael Wisniewski, chairman of the board of Axonics, said, “We are honored to have two highly accomplished directors who share a passion for women’s health join the Axonics board. The timing of these appointments comes at an ideal time given these individuals bring unique clinical and operational perspectives as well as public company governance experience. With respect to the retiring directors, it is within the normal course that representatives of venture capital firms cycle off public company boards. On behalf of all stakeholders at Axonics, we thank Dr. Malik and Mr. Pardo for their unwavering support of Axonics during the Company’s developmental phases and for their professional board service over the past few years.”

Nancy L. Snyderman, M.D., F.A.C.S., has served as an independent director on the Board of Alkermes plc (NASDAQ: ALKS) and as a member of the nominating and corporate governance committee since 2016. Dr. Snyderman was an advisory board member to GE’s Healthymagination for twelve years and previously served as a Vice President for corporate communications at Johnson & Johnson. Dr. Snyderman is a board-certified Head and Neck surgeon and has had academic appointments at the University of Pennsylvania and the University of California-San Francisco. She recently served as a Professor at the Center for Innovation for Global Health at Stanford University. Dr. Snyderman earned her B.A. in microbiology from Indiana University, her medical degree from the University of Nebraska for Medical Sciences and completed residencies in Pediatrics and Otolaryngology Head and Neck Surgery at the University of Pittsburgh. Dr. Snyderman is an Emmy award winning medical correspondent having worked at ABC News from 1987-2003 and later as Chief Medical Editor at NBC News from 2004-2015. She has been widely published in peer-reviewed medical journals and has written for Good Housekeeping, AARP, Parenting, Health, and O magazines. Dr. Snyderman is an advocate for women’s health and a prolific public speaker and presently serves on the nonprofit boards of the Fair Food Network and the Albright Institute at Wellesley College.

Jane E. Kiernan has over 30 years of executive and management leadership in health care with both public and private companies. Kiernan is a Co-founder of K2 Biotechnology Ventures, an organization engaged in developing and commercializing university and medical center innovations in partnership with venture capital, health care corporations and philanthropic health care foundation partners. From 2010-2017, Kiernan served as the CEO of Salter Labs, a manufacturer of specialty medical devices with approximately 1,000 employees and $85 million in annual revenue. From 2006–2011, Kiernan served on the Board of Directors and as Chair of the Audit Committee of Nasdaq-listed American Medical Systems (AMS) prior to AMS being acquired by Endo Pharmaceuticals (NASDAQ: ENDP) for $2.9 billion. From 2001–2010, Kiernan held executive and general management positions with profit and loss responsibility for as much as $1.5 billion in revenue with Baxter Healthcare Corporation. Prior to 2001, she held corporate and line management roles in finance, strategy, marketing, and operations with both Baxter and Allegiance Healthcare Corporation. As a community leader, Kiernan serves on the Board of Directors for Ryan Banks Academy, which will be the first urban boarding school in Chicago established to help lift students out of poverty and into the next generation of leaders and has served as Committee Chair and on the Board of Directors of the American Red Cross of Greater Chicago. In addition, she is a past President of the Healthcare Businesswomen’s Association, Chicago Chapter. Kiernan holds a B.S. degree in business from Southern Methodist University.
